TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CALLED TO ACT IN GOD’S NAME

"Let all the nations praise you!" (Psalm 67:4) today’s psalm response exclaims. In the psalms and other Hebrew scriptures, this kind of invocation is actually an invitation to God to act, to intervene in human lives in a manner that will cause everyone—not just the Chosen People—to give praise. Stated a bit more strongly, it is something of a “put up or shut up” challenge to God, the sort of strong statement the psalmists of Israel, trusting in their intimate and loving relationship with God, were not afraid to make.

The Gospel has its own exclamation, announcing the appearance of the Canaanite woman with "Behold!" (Matthew 15:22) "Behold!" is a scriptural flag that tells us that God is about to act or announce something through an individual or a situation. In the case of Jesus, God was going to act through this woman, whom nobody among Jesus’ followers would have believed to be an agent of the divine will. Like the psalmists, we might passively inform or perhaps even actively challenge God to do something so that everyone will come to belief, but God will always turn the tables on us. It becomes our calling, our duty (as it was for Jesus) to behold the situations and persons of our daily lives so that God can act through us, so the Kingdom can be announced through our living.

JOIN NOTRE DAME OF MT. CARMEL FOR MIRACLE OF CHRISTMAS

at Sight & Sound Theatre in Lancaster, PA

Tuesday, November 28, 2017

The story of the Christmas child has the power to inspire and to instill a spirit of love and hope in the hearts of mankind. It’s a timeless story that tells of a miracle born of obedience and trust that displays the ultimate gift of God, who “so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son.” You will follow Mary as she visits her cousin Elizabeth, and witness the unborn son John’s leaping in Elizabeth’s womb in recognition of the Savior. Mary’s unbelievable claim that she remains a virgin is regarded with skepticism by all, but when God sends an angel to visit Joseph in a dream, he commits himself to Mary and their journey of love and faith begins. You will accompany Mary and Joseph to Bethlehem, see the birth of the Savior, and be awe-inspired by the visitation of a heavenly host singing the praises of the King of Kings and Lord of Lords!

The cost is $139/per person (includes transportation and an Amish style family meal). The bus will depart Cedar Knolls at 9am and return approximately at 9pm. Please visit our website for more details and registration form.
